The Reverend Elvis and Friends Blue Christmas 2022

This year's concert supports:

Calgary Herald Christmas Fund

Your Grace Land Entertainment supporting our seniors community.

The Reverend Elvis & Friends Blue Christmas will take place live on December 3rd at the Royal Canadian Legion in Olds at 7:30 PM and December 4th at the Delta Calgary South in Calgary at 1 PM. It will also be available as a live stream to Seniors' Residences, thanks to the generous support of our sponsors.

This year's benefit will also support Your Grace Land Entertainment, supporting our seniors community year-round, as well as the Calgary Herald Christmas Fund. We appreciate your consideration to share in this Christmas Spirit of giving.

The Reverend Elvis & Friends Blue Christmas grew out of a seed of an idea planted 29 years ago by a young minister in the small town of Vauxhall, Alberta. Rev. Bruce R. E. Sheasby (AKA "The Reverend Elvis"), hosted a service to remember loved ones missed over the holidays, donning his leather jacket and crooning, "We'll have a Blue Christmas without you."

Over the years that seed has grown and flourished into an inspirational and charitable event reinforcing the theme "The Light Shines in the Darkness".

Partnering with businesses and individuals, The Reverend Elvis & Friends Blue Christmas has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars supporting worthwhile causes.

"The Wall of Light"

Sponsors who wish to be acknowledged, will be recognized on our "Wall of Light", where names are displayed along with messages of hope or dedications in memory of loved ones.
